LAYERS LOSING AT SPA TRACK

Bettors Plunging With Confidence and Success on Short-Priced Horses.

COURT DRESS GOOD FILLY

Expected to Be Among Season's Topnotchers-Important Transfers of Good Horses.

SARATOGA, Aug. 9.-The sweep of good things at the track yesterday afternoon proved profitable mough to cause the majority of the crowd, and it was a generous one, to forget the discomforts that came with the heat, which was again at a mark that was trying not alone to those compelled to move about but to those who held to the stand and clubhouse during the entire afternoon.

The layers with but few exceptions lost heavily, despite the short prices of the winning choices, but it was a series of victories where the faint hearted were induced to plunge and unless "angels" with bank rolls appear there will be some vacant stools on the line today. Court Dress' easy victory in the Spin-away Stakes, which had a guaranteed value of $10,000, once again proved the prowess of this filly, and if she does not prove one of the top notchers among the ason's two-year-olds some pretty clever judges will be greatly disappointed Thus far this filly has been to the posfour times and each time has been returned a winner. Her earnings are $3,455 in the Fashion Stakes, $1,800 in the Gayety, $5,085 in the Criterion, and $8,250, the winner's share yesterday, a total of $18,360. She was not included in the entries made by Mr. Keene for the Special on Saturday, but there are many rich engagements ahead of her, and it is not stretching it to say that they look to be at her mercy provided she holds her present condition. Her trainer, James Rowe, said today that there is no telling how good she is, for thus far she has but little more than breezed to win. He makes no secret of the belief that he has the best two-year-old of the year and does not bar the colts.

Woodford Clay has sold to the New Castle stable Running Water and Content, both of which are in the very pink of condition. Those interested declined to name the price, but from close friends of both it was learned that the figure was $25,000. This looks like full value, but with the older division as weak as it is the pair should not have any trouble in winning themselves out in stakes and purses, independent of any betting the owners may do.

Statements this cottage are that it is nothing serior and that he will be about in a coupl of days.

Water Grass was badly cut down his race. The injury is just above thack of the left hind leg. His owned Jack Joyner, fears bad results, but sa he would not be able to state just he serious the injury was until later.

W. C. Hayes' steeplechaser, Grandpa, died at Horse Haven yesterday morning. He was one of the best of the cross-country performers here, and in his day won good races in all parts of the country.

It is stated here that Clarence Mackay has decided to again take active interest in racing and will get together a big stable to race next year. With the older horses he will buy will be a big string of home-bred two-year-olds, most of whom are sors and daughters of Banastar. It is also rumored that Tom Welch will train for him, but this rart of the story cannot be confirmed. Welch is at present under engagement to the Newcastle Stable and he has been advising all the many purchases the stable has made.

Glamor was thrown on the fence while rounding the home turn in the Spin away Stakes, and when she pulled up it was seen she had been cut down as well. Toddles, Yankee Girl and Killierankie also showed where they had been bumped.

DELIBERATELY MISLEADING NEW YORK BASEBALL FANS

Some Newspaper Writers There Sacrificing Truth to Pro- Will Pay $10,000 for Franchise at End tect Giants-Known in Advance That Johnstone Would Be Barred.

By THOMAS S. RICE.

There are none so blind as those who will not see, and this was never exemplified more clearly than it was yesterday in the writings of the baseball "critics" in the two New York afternoon newspapers which have the largest circulation in Washington.

Neither of these alleged diamond sharps had the gumption or the nerve to come out boldly and give the management of the New York National League and most undesirable members of the force have proved themselves heroes when it came to a question of dispersing a mob or quelling a riot.

Whatever Sweeney's merits may be it shardly likely that he would lay down and refuse to undertake to protect an arbitrator from the bunch of back-stabusers who make it a habit to bait unders. He says he had nothing to dowlith it and in this case the cop's word of the New York National League baseball club, has secured an option on the New Haven team of the Connecticut League and may take over the entire franchise and pay $10,000 for it at the end of the New Haven cube and may take over the entire franchise and may take over the entire franchise.

This announcement was made last inght by manager and owner C system after Johnstone had forfeited the aware that Johnstone was to be barred by the club on its own intiative. Of Misleading the Fans.

Misleading the Fans.

This would be absolutely ludicrous were it not that it was probably read by people who were not familiar with the acknowledged details, and who would thus innocently acquire a wrong impression of the circumstances. These fans would get ideas that would make them as foolish as the writers of the articles in question, and that is a calamity too great to be inflicted upon suffering humanity in this hot weather. From the Chicago team to have gone on with the game, after a deliberate and vicious attempt to deprive it of its rights and to fix things so that it could not possibly win, would have been a weak-kneed concession to rowdylsm and have displayed a spirit unworthy of any man professing to have red blood in his veins.

Chance Deserves Credit.

The time had come to decide whether the National League or the New York club was to run things, and Manager Frank Chance deserves credit for taking a stand that meant the saving not only of the organization of which the country, and George S. McCurdy, of the New York Press, both Washington method was to mee, whose words go a long way. Both say that it was tipped off in advance that Johnstone would not be allowed to pass the gate and that Chance was also wise to the fact that something was going to happen. They also add that when the contention between the managers arose and McGraw wanted that when the contention between the managers arose and McGraw wanted that when the contention between the managers arose and McGraw wanted that when the contention between the managers arose and McGraw wanted that when the contention between the managers arose and McGraw wanted that when the contention between the managers arose and McGraw wanted that when the contention between the managers arose and McGraw wanted Chicago to agree to accept the arbitration of two players. Chance walked over to the press box and remarked to the reporters that he was going to stand up for his rights. A good Chance!
